

For Immediate Release

Contact Jami Jonckowski-Wiens
(970) 506-3227, jwiens@floodpeterson.com

FLOOD AND PETERSON RECEIVES 2014 UNITED WAY OF WELD COUNTY'S COMPANY OF THE YEAR AWARD

Executive Vice President Rick Jenkins named 2014 Live United Award for his outstanding community service

Denver, Colorado (March 12, 2015) – Flood and Peterson received two prestigious awards from the United Way of Weld County today at the organization's annual Celebration of Excellence luncheon.

Each year, one company is recognized for its outstanding commitment and partnership to the United Way of Weld County. Flood and Peterson has been selected as the 2014 Company of the Year. Corporate and employee participation in fundraisers, volunteer opportunities, and events are examples of the criteria used for the award.

Flood and Peterson's Rick Jenkins was also honored with the 2014 'LIVE UNITED' award. He has been a long time supporter, volunteer and board member at the United Way of Weld County. Jeannine Truswell, President & CEO, said the following regarding Rick's award selection: "Rick's continuous commitment and leadership has made a significant difference in our organization, as well as in our community."

"We are honored to have been chosen to receive the 2014 'Company of the Year' award," said Royal Lovell, President of Flood and Peterson. "We are also proud of Rick Jenkins who is very deserving of United Way's individual award. Rick has been a passionate and trusted leader at Flood and Peterson for more than 37 years."

Rick Jenkins currently serves as one of Flood and Peterson's Executive Vice Presidents and directs the organization from his position on the Board of Directors.

About the United Way of Weld County

According to its website, United Way of Weld County exists to improve the lives of people in Weld County. The organization works together with the community to solve problems.

Whether you make a contribution of dollars or time, you help more than one person or charity. You support a network of services that provide children with a good start, invest in the future of youth, help people through crisis, encourage self sufficiency, support the elderly, support health and wellness, and help people overcome disability

About Flood and Peterson

Operating since 1939, Flood and Peterson is Colorado's leading insurance broker and one of the largest privately held in the nation. Providing solutions in commercial insurance, employee benefits, and retirement planning and surety programs across a number of industries, Flood and Peterson is a long-term partner to its clients and community.